

House Resolution No. 3093

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Reid Kelly Day of Troop 46 successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on June 22, 2003, at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Kansas City, Missouri; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Reid through the billets of Chaplain's Aide, Quartermaster, Troop Guide, and Instructor; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Reid earned him thirty-eight merit badges, a Fifty Miler Award, the World Conservation Award, CPR/First Aid Certification, and the status of Warrior in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say where he is known as "Brother of Good Oak"; and

Whereas, in keeping with Boy Scout practice, Reid applied the knowledge which he learned at troop meetings in such camping and hiking opportunities as a High Adventure trek up Mt. Yale in Colorado and a sixty-five mile backpacking excursion at Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico; and

Whereas, Reid planned and carried out a required Eagle Service Project which consisted of organizing and supervising volunteers from three troops to scrape bleachers at a baseball stadium and then to apply fresh paint to protect and improve the appearance of the wood:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Reid Kelly Day during his ten-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Reid Kelly Day, son of Bruce and Nancy Day of Kansas City.
